

20 years of War on Terror and its impact on Muslim communities in Europe

Online Roundtable and Policy Debate

Final Agenda

This half-day conference will bring together policymakers, scholars, and activists from different EU Member states to interrogate the impact of 20 years of “War on Terror” on Muslim communities and Muslim civic space in Europe. Contributions will address the securitization of Muslims and the chilling effects of EU Member State’s security policies implemented in the last two decades. Speakers will also discuss ideas and strategies on achieving safety for all without securitization, surveillance, and racialization.

The event is jointly organized by CLAIM, Collectif pour l'Inclusion et Contre l'Islamophobie en Belgique, Dokustelle Austria, European Network Against Racism, the European Parliament's Anti-Racism and Diversity Intergroup and the Open Society European Policy Institute.

When: 4th November 2 pm to 4:40 pm CET

Moderation: Shada Islam
