20 years of War on Terror and its impact on Muslim communities in Europe

Online Roundtable and Policy Debate

This half-day conference will bring together policymakers, scholars and activists from different EU Member states to interrogate the impact of 20 years of “War on Terror” on Muslim communities and Muslim civic space in Europe.

Contributions will address the securitization of Muslims and the chilling effects of EU Member State’s security policies implemented in the last two decades. Speakers will also discuss ideas and strategies on achieving safety for all without securitization, surveillance, and racialization. Contributions will be provided amongst others by

• Chafika Attalai, Advocacy Officer – CCIE

• Rumeysa Dür-Kwieder, Board member and Project Officer – Dokustelle Austria

• Sarah Chander, Senior Policy Advisor – European Digital Rights

• Shezana Hafiz, Campaign Coordinator – CAGE

• Julie Pascoët, Senior Advocacy Officer – ENAR

• Farid Hafez, Visiting Professor of International Studies – Williams University

• Momodou Malcolm Jallow – Representative Parliamentary Assembly Council of Europe and General Rapporteur on combating racism and intolerance

Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination

• Tufyal Choudhury, Associate Professor – LLM, Durham University
